Standard time.

The world's series will be covered in approved fashion by the United Press and the Brainerd Dispatch has contracted for a complete extra service to cover this event in the sporting life of the nation which even makes international affairs, German reparations, domestic politics, Lloyd George, etc., etc., take a back seat.

It's going to cost something to get this service, but the Brainerd Dispatch, in the home town of "Joe Bullet" Leslie Bush, who may pitch in one of the opening games, is banking on the fans to buy the big editions to be printed.

Take the Dispatch for the world's series and you'll get the big dope on the series long before the city papers and pink extras hit town.

The name of every Yank player is a household word in Brainerd. Every sandlot player in Brainerd knows the batting average.

The Yanks showed wonderful team work in their race for the pennant this year. They played a "Three Musketeer" combination, "one for all and all for one." The Lord pity the Giants if they enter the world's series with that same spirit which distinguished the Yanks in their race for the American League pennant.

MURDER ATTEMPT AND A SUICIDE

TRAGEDY ON A LARIMORE, NORTH DAKOTA, FARM REVEALED

Larimore, N. D., Oct. 9.—Herman Brandt is dead and Mrs. Rosa May is thought to be dying in a Grand Forks hospital as the result of a murder attempt and suicide at Mrs. May's farm near here this morning. Mrs. May was shot at 6:30 this morning when Brandt, a former employee on her farm, forced his way into her kitchen where she was preparing breakfast. He then shot himself.

A few weeks ago Mrs. May filed suit against Brandt for slander. The barn on the May farm was burned mysteriously last night, and in view of developments this morning it is believed that Brandt set the fire.

CHARGE OLD MAN WITH MURDER

Anoka, Minn., Oct. 9.—The Anoka county grand jury today heard evidence accusing T. H. Boyd, 70 years old, of murder.

W. A. Blanchard, county attorney, presented the case to the grand jury. Boyd is charged with shooting Frank Laferriere to death in a cigar store here August 16.

The old man operated the taxicab stand opposite the cigar store. He was the brunt of many jokes by hangers-on around the store.

Enraged by the gibes of Laferriere, whom he disliked, the old man stepped into his office, procured a gun, returned to the cigar store, shot his tormentor and returned to his office, and sat in a chair until the officers came for him. He offered no resistance.

Boyd is married. He formerly lived at St. Cloud.

TRIES OUT NEW KIND OF PLANE

WING OF MONOPLANE CRUMBLES AND HARRY J. QUINN KILLED

(By United Press)
St. Paul, Oct. 9.—Harry J. Quinn, 27, wanted to "put one over" on Professor Charles Boehnlein by being the first to fly a new monoplane the latter invented, and died in the attempt.

Without permission, and stating that he wanted to fly the plane before the inventor had a chance to try it out, Quinn took it up 300 feet over Curtiss field yesterday. A wing crumpled. Quinn was found in the wreckage, horribly mangled. Professor Boehnlein had planned to try the plane himself later in the day.

Officials of the Curtiss field said Quinn alone was to blame. It was the first accident at the field.

LLOYD GEORGE KEEPS HIS OARS IN THE AFFAIRS OF STATE

(By United Press)
With Lloyd George Montreal, Oct. 9.—Lloyd George is keeping his oar in the international water despite the fact that he is no longer steering the British ship of state.

Having in mind the possibility that Stresemann may fall in a week or two and that his fall may conceivably be followed by the fall of the British ministry among other things, Lloyd George reminded his countrymen that he is ready at hand if need arises.

This is the construction some of his political friends have put on his statement relative to the Hughes' economic plan for payment of reparations.

It was his first utterance on the international situation beyond a general statement. In effect, he agreed with friends and supporters of the Hughes' plan for an economic commission to determine Germany's capacity to pay as the only workable plan. There was a note of warning for France in Lloyd George's brief statement, in which he pointed out that since the Hughes' suggestion was first made Germany's ability to pay had been lessened, and that further delay would lessen it still further.

Lloyd George and his party will leave this afternoon for Ottawa for a brief stop. Meantime the program of speeches for the remainder of the Canadian tour is scrambled.

Lord Renfrew, expected in Montreal about noon today on his way home from his ranching vacation, probably will meet Lloyd George.

COOLIDGE'S ENVOYS TALK CO-OPERATIVE WHEAT MARKETING

MEYER AND MONDELL CONDUCT CONFERENCE AT CHICAGO TO ALLEViate CONDITIONS

CONFER ALSO WITH AARON SA- PIRO, CO-OPERATIVE COUN- SEL OF FARM BUREAU

Chicago, Oct. 9.—Eugene Meyer, managing director of the War Finance corporation, was here for conferences with wheat growers of the central northwest by direction of President Coolidge.

His first engagement was with Judge Robert Bingham, of Louisville, Ky., former Governor Frank O. Lowden of Illinois; Aaron Sapiro, co-operative counsel of the American Farm Bureau federation, and nearly a score of others.

Mr. Meyer, Director Frank Mondell, of the corporation, and M. G. Yohe, of the bureau of agricultural economics, department of agriculture, formed the Washington contingent to hold conferences in the central northwest by order of President Coolidge to discuss with wheat growers the matter of forming co-operative marketing associations through aid made available by the government.

Mr. Meyer and his party arrived with no definite plans, he explained, but would work out his program while here.

FRANK O. LOWDEN ASSISTS ORGANIZATION

Chicago, Oct. 9.—Frank O. Lowden, former governor of Illinois, today directed the organization of a national co-operative marketing association for the purpose of providing an orderly market for surplus wheat.

The decision to organize the association was reached at a secret conference between wheat growers, government officials, and others yesterday.

Eugene Meyer, Jr., director of the war finance corporation, Frank W. Mondell, also a member of the corporation, members of the American Farm Bureau federation and other farm organizations participated in the conference.

Lowden was elected chairman of the executive committee appointed to work out the co-operative organization. Lowden said the organization is designed to market the wheat crop in an orderly manner and to prevent "dumping."

The organization will seek to enlist farmers of all wheat growing states, particularly the Dakotas, Nebraska, Kansas, Iowa, Indiana and Illinois.

The cost of maintaining the organization will be met by assessing each member a fee of $10 on joining, according to present plans.

INTERNATIONAL FARMERS' CONGRESS

Kansas City, Oct. 9.—A program for relieving wheat farmers from their economic difficulties which will be presented to President Coolidge will be adopted by the International Farmers' congress, opening here tomorrow.

Experts for the congress have worked out a plan which will be presented to the meeting for approval and then submitted to the national administration. The scheme is understood to be along the lines of that outlined by the United States department of agriculture, which includes formation of a government corporation to purchase all surplus wheat for export and act as agent in selling grain abroad.

North Dakota Day
Bismarck, Oct. 9.—This is North Dakota day at the National Dairy association's annual show at Syracuse, N. Y.

STRESEMANN WINS CONFIDENCE OF THE REICHSTAG

(By United Press)
Berlin, Oct. 9.—Chancellor Stresemann has won the required confidence of the Reichstag in his new patchwork ministry, despite a general feeling that it will not long endure.

By a two-thirds vote the Reichstag passed a resolution of confidence in the Stresemann government late last night, in which the Deutsche nationalists, communists and Bavarian volksparty (not to be confused with volksparty of Germany) voted against the chancellor.

At the time when Stresemann was receiving the support of the legislators, Hugo Stinnes, stung by charges of Bernhard in the Vossische Zeitung that the industrialist was trying to establish a dictatorship by driving prices "skyward," published in the Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung a statement under his own name denying this.

AMES, IOWA, MAN HURT IN FOOTBALL GAME, DIED MONDAY

JACK TRICE, CLEVELAND, O., VIC- TIM OF COMPLICATIONS AND HEMORRHAGE

IN THIRD QUARTER OF MINNE- SOTA GAME HE WAS HURLED DOWN AND TRAMPLED

(By United Press)
Ames, Iowa, Oct. 9.—Injuries received in the football game between the University of Minnesota and Iowa State College Saturday proved fatal to Jack Trice, Cleveland, Ohio.

He was hurt in a mass play, and taken from the field to Ames hospital, where he died late yesterday. He was a sophomore at Iowa State college.

Death resulted from complications and an internal hemorrhage.

In close play during the third quarter of the game with Minnesota, the negro tackle was hurled to the ground and trampled upon. He had sustained abdominal injuries, but walked from the field unassisted.

Within 10 minutes after he was hurt, he was rushed to a hospital near Northrop field, placed aboard a sleeper, taken to Ames, and then removed to the college hospital.

Physicians were not alarmed about his condition until Sunday afternoon when Trice's respiration became irregular and increased rapidly.

An operation was declared inadvisable on account of Trice's serious condition.

Trice was a star player, and Coach Samuel Williamson regarded him as the strongest man in the right tackle position.

Dr. Abernethy Speaks

Minneapolis, Oct. 9.—Dr. W. R. Abernethy, Washington, D. C., pastor of the church which the late President Harding attended, returned to Minneapolis today to speak to Minnesota Baptists.

On the site where he was born, Dr. Abernethy spoke in the Fourth Baptist church. The building replaced the home in which he was reared. As a boy, Dr. Abernethy sold newspapers on the streets of Minneapolis.

Dr. John Earl, St. Paul, preached the convention sermon today. At one time Dr. Earl was a coal miner.

Federal Court Opening

Minot, Oct. 9.—Judge Andrew Miller is sitting here in federal district court today to hear arraignments. Tomorrow a jury term opens at Devils Lake.

STOKES FAMILY WASHING IS HUNG OUT ON THE LINE

W. E. D. STOKES MILLION DOL- LAR DIVORCE SUIT IS ON TRIAL

SAMUEL UNTERMAYER IS CHIEF COUNSEL FOR RED HAired WOMAN DEFENDANT

(By United Press)
New York, Oct. 9.—Efforts to stand in his million dollar divorce suit was made today by his wife's attorneys.

Samuel Untermeyer, chief counsel for the red haired Denver woman who is defending herself against Stokes' sordid charges, declared he would use every legal means to force Stokes to the witness box.

Untermeyer wants to reveal the alleged amorous adventures of the millionaire New York clubman—the inside story of the "girl shooting" and the "Lucy Riley illegitimate child suit." Stokes was shot in 1911 by two chorus girls, Lillian Graham and Ethel Conrad in their apartment. They were exonerated. The Riley girl, a stenographer, charged him with fatherhood of her child, but the suit was lost.

When the case goes to the jury, Untermeyer has prepared a motion to the court waiving the right of a husband and wife not to testify against each other. The success of his scheme hinges on the decision of the court on this point of law.

Yellow Skinned Negress in Court

The prosecution hammered at the "No. 13 East 35th Street" affair when court was resumed. Nell Rose Miller, a yellow skinned negress in a yellow tailored suit, testified yesterday that she had seen Mrs. Stokes in the Edgar T. Wallace apartment on the third floor at No. 13 at least half a dozen times. Mrs. Stokes gave orders around the place, she said.

It was Mrs. Stokes' claim that she never visited the place. Stokes has the testimony of a number of witnesses who claim she was there.

Attempts to Show Frameup

Untermeyer is attempting to show a frameup in the cross-examination of these witnesses. He will attempt to present to the jury the same evidence that was given to the grand jury in Chicago which recently indicted Stokes on a charge of attempting to defame the name of his former wife and mother of his children.

In Filmy Undergarments

W. E. D. Stokes today undertook to prove that his wife, clad only in filmy undergarments, was seen frequently in the apartment of Edgar T. Wallace in New York between June 1917 and February, 1918.

This testimony was introduced in the morning session of the millionaire hotel man's divorce suit against Helen Ellwood Stokes, beautiful woman half his age, whom he has been fighting in court for five years.

Western Association

Baseball Loop Formed

Kansas City, Oct. 9.—A new western association baseball league was formed here yesterday. Towns in the new league were selected from those comprising this year's southwestern league and western association.

Four towns from each of the old leagues were selected. They are: Topeka, Kansas, Hutchinson, Kansas, Muskogee, Okla., and Bartlesville, Okla., of the southwestern league, and Springfield, Mo., Joplin, Mo., Okmulgee, Okla., and Fort Smith, Ark., of the western association.

Dr. Seabaugh of Springfield was selected temporary president of the new association.

FREIGHTER AGROUND NEAR VANCOUVER

San Francisco, Oct. 9.—The Williams line freighter Kennicott ran aground upon the rocks off Fredericks Island, near Vancouver, B. C., at 1:12 this morning, according to a radiogram from the vessel to the Radio Corporation of America here at the time of the accident. Communication was lost with the vessel at 1:30.

CONVICTS KILLED IN PRISON SIEGE BURIED

WIFE OF LEADER CONFESSES SHE HELPED SMUGGLE PISTOLS TO GUNMEN

Eddyville, Ky., Oct. 9.—Prison life was practically normal again here, following the burial in the penitentiary cemetery of Monte Walters and Harry Ferland, convicts who met death in a barricaded dining hall after fatally wounding three guards in an attempt to escape. Two pine boxes containing their bodies were hauled one at a time on a prison wagon to Vinegar Hill and interred without services. The body of Lawrence Griffith was sent to his former home at Dresden, Tenn.

In commenting on the fact that prison guards and Kentucky National Guardsmen reported having seen movements within the barricaded building during the three and a half days siege which it is now certain only dead men were holding, officials said this was probably due to fluttering coats and aprons of prison attendants which hung on the walls inside the gunmen's covert.

The convicts left hastily scrawled death messages. One from Griffith read: "Defiants (defiance) from the dead."

One from Walters to his wife said: "Love to you, beloved."

MRS. WALTERS CONFESSES HELPING SMUGGLE GUNS

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 9.—Mrs. Lillian Walters, widow of Monte Walters, reputed leader of three convict murderers slain in Edgewater prison's 81 hour siege, confessed she aided in smuggling pistols and ammunition to the gunmen, police here said.

"What's the use, I helped," the police, who have been cross-examining Mrs. Walters since Friday, quoted her as having said.

Mrs. Walters' complete statement was withheld by the police, who said it would be forwarded to T. B. McGregor, state attorney general at Frankfort.

Two Negroes were implicated by Mrs. Walters, it was said.

One of the Negroes, the confession was said to have detailed, purchased the arms and ammunition in Cairo, Ill., and the second smuggled them into the prison. One is under surveillance by Lyon county authorities, officials reported. The second has fled from the state.

NORTHWEST BRIEFS

Nonpartisan Leaguers

Bismarck, Oct. 9.—Nonpartisan Leaguers are meeting here tomorrow to decide whether the various factions into which the party which held sway in North Dakota for nearly five years split, can amalgamate and get into the 1924 campaign with some hope of victory.

The purpose of the convention as outlined by W. J. Church, chairman of the state executive committee, who issued the call, are to decide the following questions:

Whether the name of the league shall be changed to the Farmer-Labor party.

Entire separation from the National nonpartisan league at Minneapolis as far as dues are concerned.

Designation of the North Dakota Leader as the official paper. Establishment of a daily paper.

The call for the convention was issued after a "rump" conference at

MEN WERE BEING LOWERED DOWN IN AN ILLINOIS MINE

AT 500 FOOT LEVEL CABLE OF DECATUR COAL CO. CAGE BROKE

TOOK SEVEN HOURS TO REPAIR CABLE AND BRING INJURED TO THE SURFACE

(By United Press)
Decatur, Ill., Oct. 9.—Two men are dying and two others are suffering from serious injuries today as the result of a fall of 100 feet in the shaft of the Decatur Coal company mine near here last night.

The men were being lowered to the 600-foot level in a huge cage. At the 500-foot level the cable broke, precipitating cage and men.

Men at work on the lower level gave aid to the injured. Later doctors and nurses were lowered and dressed the injuries in the light of flickering mine lamps. One of the men suffered a broken back, another injuries to the head and body, and the other sustained broken legs and possible internal injuries.

It was not until seven hours after the accident that the cable was repaired and the injured taken to the surface.

SHE WOULD READ MOVING PICTURE TITLES ALOUD

(By United Press)
Nashville, Tenn., Oct. 9.—Lizzie May Evans, negress, is dead and Mary Martin, Chicago negress, is being held on a charge of murder today because the slain woman persisted in reading aloud moving picture titles in a local theatre.

Valley City demanded that such a meeting be held or they would withdraw from the league. In issuing the call Chairman Church failed to comply exactly with the demands of this ultimatum as to the composition of the convention. His first call provided that the membership should be that which sat in three previous conventions and which insurgents in the party charge were dominated by "bossism." Later Church modified this announcement, permitting counties which desired to do so to elect new delegates.

The insurgent faction from recent announcements in the "Progressive," another nonpartisan weekly, which will compete with the Leader for official recognition are somewhat suspicious of the promoters of tomorrow's meeting, but will wait until its results are known before going ahead with the threatened secession and new party. Their proposed party was to have been known as the "progressive." John L. Mikelthun, state senator from Winnebago, and C. A. Fisher, Barnes county officer, are leaders in the insurgent faction.

There is also a radical group who have formed a party and they have been sending out literature for some months to attempt to secure control of tomorrow's meeting.

A Farmer-Labor party has also been formed since the Valley City meeting and they will seek endorsement of the nonpartisan league. This party plans to function as a third political party and not through the machinery of one of the old established parties as the nonpartisan have done. At the time of their foundation, it was announced they would go ahead and put candidates into the field next year, whether or not they got the endorsement of the nonpartisan league.

Senator Lynn J. Frazier, since the Courier-News, nonpartisan daily paper, was sold to the Tribune Publishing company, has been working on a scheme for a new daily which no doubt will be presented to Wednesday's meeting.

LAR DIVORCE SUIT IS ON TRIAL

SAMUEL UNTERMAYER IS CHIEF
COUNSEL FOR RED HAIR
WOMAN DEFENDANT

(By United Press)
New York, Oct. 9.—Efforts to force W. E. D. Stokes to the stand in his million dollar divorce suit was made today by his wife's attorneys.

Samuel Untermeyer, chief counsel for the red haired Denver woman who is defending herself against Stokes' sordid charges, declared he would use every legal means to force Stokes to the witness box.

Untermeyer wants to reveal the alleged amorous adventures of the millionaire New York clubman—the inside story of the "girl shooting" and the "Lucy Riley illegitimate child suit." Stokes was shot in 1911 by two chorus girls, Lillian Graham and Ethel Conrad in their apartment. They were exonerated. The Riley girl, a stenographer, charged him with fatherhood of her child, but the suit was lost.

When the case goes to the jury, Untermeyer has prepared a motion to the court waiving the right of a husband and wife not to testify against each other. The success of his scheme hinges on the decision of the court on this point of law.

Yellow Skinned Negress in Court

The prosecution hammered at the "No. 13 East 35th Street" affair when court was resumed. Nell Rose Miller, a yellow skinned negress in a yellow tailored suit, testified yesterday that she had seen Mrs. Stokes in the Edgar T. Wallace apartment on the third floor at No. 13 at least half a dozen times. Mrs. Stokes gave orders around the place, she said.

It was Mrs. Stokes' claim that she never visited the place. Stokes has the testimony of a number of witnesses who claim she was there.

Attempts to Show Frameup

Untermeyer is attempting to show a frameup in the cross-examination of these witnesses. He will attempt to present to the jury the same evidence that was given to the grand jury in Chicago which recently indicted Stokes on a charge of attempting to defame the name of his former wife and mother of his children.

In Filmy Undergarments

W. E. D. Stokes today undertook to prove that his wife, clad only in filmy undergarments, was seen frequently in the apartment of Edgar T. Wallace in New York between June 1917 and February, 1918.

This testimony was introduced in the morning session of the millionaire hotel man's divorce suit against Helen Ellwood Stokes, beautiful woman half his age, whom he has been fighting in court for five years.

Western Association

Baseball Loop Formed

Kansas City, Oct. 9.—A new western association baseball league was formed here yesterday. Towns in the new league were selected from those comprising this year's southwestern league and western association.

Four towns from each of the old leagues were selected. They are: Topeka, Kansas, Hutchinson, Kansas, Muskogee, Okla., and Bartlesville, Okla., of the southwestern league, and Springfield, Mo., Joplin, Mo., Okmulgee, Okla., and Fort Smith, Ark., of the western association.

Dr. Seabaugh of Springfield was selected temporary president of the new association.

FREIGHTER AGROUND NEAR VANCOUVER

San Francisco, Oct. 9.—The Williams line freighter Kennicott ran aground upon the rocks off Fredericks Island, near Vancouver, B. C., at 1:12 this morning, according to a radiogram from the vessel to the Radio Corporation of America here at the time of the accident. Communication was lost with the vessel at 1:30.

CONVICTS KILLED IN PRISON SIEGE BURIED

WIFE OF LEADER CONFESSES SHE HELPED SMUGGLE PISTOLS TO GUNMEN

Eddyville, Ky., Oct. 9.—Prison life was practically normal again here, following the burial in the penitentiary cemetery of Monte Walters and Harry Ferland, convicts who met death in a barricaded dining hall after fatally wounding three guards in an attempt to escape. Two pine boxes containing their bodies were hauled one at a time on a prison wagon to Vinegar Hill and interred without services. The body of Lawrence Griffith was sent to his former home at Dresden, Tenn.

In commenting on the fact that prison guards and Kentucky National Guardsmen reported having seen movements within the barricaded building during the three and a half days siege which it is now certain only dead men were holding, officials said this was probably due to fluttering coats and aprons of prison attendants which hung on the walls inside the gunmen's covert.

The convicts left hastily scrawled death messages. One from Griffith read: "Defiant (defiance) from the dead."

MRS. WALTERS CONFESSES HELPING SMUGGLE GUNS

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 9.—Mrs. Lillian Walters, widow of Monte Walters, reputed leader of three convict murderers slain in Edgewater prison's 81 hour siege, confessed she aided in smuggling pistols and ammunition to the gunmen, police here said.

"What's the use, I helped," the police, who have been cross-examining Mrs. Walters since Friday, quoted her as having said.

Mrs. Walters' complete statement was withheld by the police, who said it would be forwarded to T. B. McGregor, state attorney general at Frankfort.

Two Negroes were implicated by Mrs. Walters, it was said.

One of the Negroes, the confession was said to have detailed, purchased the arms and ammunition in Cairo, Ill., and the second smuggled them into the prison. One is under surveillance by Lyon county authorities, officials reported. The second has fled from the state.

NORTHWEST BRIEFS

Nonpartisan Leaguers

Bismarck, Oct. 9.—Nonpartisan Leaguers are meeting here tomorrow to decide whether the various factions into which the party which held sway in North Dakota for nearly five years split, can amalgamate and get into the 1924 campaign with some hope of victory.

The purpose of the convention as outlined by W. J. Church, chairman of the state executive committee, who issued the call, are to decide the following questions:

Whether the name of the league shall be changed to the Farmer-Labor party.

Entire separation from the National nonpartisan league at Minneapolis as far as dues are concerned.

Designation of the North Dakota Leader as the official paper. Establishment of a daily paper.

The call for the convention was issued after a "rump" conference at

MEN WERE BEING LOWERED DOWN IN AN ILLINOIS MINE

AT 500 FOOT LEVEL CABLE OF
DECATUR COAL CO. CAGE
BROKE

TOOK SEVEN HOURS TO REPAIR
CABLE AND BRING INJURED
TO THE SURFACE

(By United Press)
Decatur, Ill., Oct. 9.—Two men are dying and two others are suffering from serious injuries today as the result of a fall of 100 feet in the shaft of the Decatur Coal company mine near here last night.

The men were being lowered to the 600-foot level in a huge cage. At the 500-foot level the cable broke, precipitating cage and men.

Men at work on the lower level gave aid to the injured. Later doctors and nurses were lowered and dressed the injuries in the light of flickering mine lamps. One of the men suffered a broken back, another injuries to the head and body, and the other sustained broken legs and possible internal injuries.

It was not until seven hours after the accident that the cable was repaired and the injured taken to the surface.

SHE WOULD READ MOVING PICTURE TITLES ALOUD

(By United Press)
Nashville, Tenn., Oct. 9.—Lizzie May Evans, negress, is dead and Mary Martin, Chicago negress, is being held on a charge of murder today because the slain woman persisted in reading aloud moving picture titles in a local theatre.

Valley City demanded that such a meeting be held or they would withdraw from the league. In issuing the call Chairman Church failed to comply exactly with the demands of this ultimatum as to the composition of the convention. His first call provided that the membership should be that which sat in three previous conventions and which insurgents in the party charge were dominated by "bossism." Later Church modified this announcement, permitting counties which desired to do so to elect new delegates.

The insurgent faction from recent announcements in the "Progressive," another nonpartisan weekly, which will compete with the Leader for official recognition are somewhat suspicious of the promoters of tomorrow's meeting, but will wait until its results are known before going ahead with the threatened secession and new party. Their proposed party was to have been known as the "progressive," John L. Micklethun, state senator from Wimbeldon, and C. A. Fisher, Barnes county officer, are leaders in the insurgent faction.

There is also a radical group who have formed a party and they have been sending out literature for some months to attempt to secure control of tomorrow's meeting.

A Farmer-Labor party has also been formed since the Valley City meeting and they will seek endorsement of the nonpartisan league. This party plans to function as a third political party and not through the machinery of one of the old established parties as the nonpartisan have done. At the time of their foundation, it was announced they would go ahead and put candidates into the field next year, whether or not they got the endorsement of the nonpartisan league.

Senator Lynn J. Frazier, since the Courier-News, nonpartisan daily paper, was sold to the Tribune Publishing company, has been working on a scheme for a new daily which no doubt will be presented to Wednesday's meeting.

IS CONFIRMED OPTIMIST

Riccardo Martin Believes in Blue Skies and Sunshine, No Matter What Weather

One hears a good bit about the temperamental outbursts of various grand opera stars, but in Riccardo Martin is found a confirmed optimist, who believes in blue skies and sunshine, no matter what the weather. Number 13, blue Mondays, walking under ladders and upsetting the salt-shaker never put any superstition in the heart of America's leading tenor. If a black cat should appear on the stage right in the midst of an aria, Mr. Martin would be more than likely to stroke pussy in a gentle manner, so that his tail stood straight up in the air with joy, rather than to have him schooled off the stage in an abrupt manner.

Mr. Martin never frets when a train is late nor does he blame the engineer. He figures that if the engine man brings him to town safely a little late, it is better than bringing him on time, but a wreck. He likes to smile; he likes a good joke and when he sings nothing pleases him more than knowing he is giving pleasure to someone else. Mr. Martin loves youth, and he is always happy when surrounded by a crowd of young and jolly folks. He likes to be in company with those who know how to enjoy life in the right manner.

This season he will tour all parts of the country. He will have to catch the train at all hours of the day and night. But that will not phase him, as far as his humor is concerned. When he appears in this city, one thing music lovers can rest assured of: his good nature and genial smile will win hearts before he begins his first number.

FREEDOM'S BATTLE IN OKLAHOMA

THE condition of affairs in Oklahoma is disgusting. Two groups of autocrats are fighting each other in the name of freedom. One side talks about the evils of organized government and substitutes for it invisible government, while the other side talks about invisible government and substitutes for it government by martial law. In this battle for freedom in Oklahoma extremes meet, and it is because they are extremists that there is any battle at all. Neither side is right and it is equally certain that both sides are wrong. Somewhere between the two there is ground on which sensible and tolerant people must find standing room.

While there is every reason to believe that there has been misrepresentation on both sides sufficient information is broadcasted to lead to the conclusions already stated. Of course, there is reason to believe that political influences are at work to discredit Governor J. C. Walton. He was elected by the farmer-labor party and that means that any opportunity would be used by his opponents to put him in a bad light. And again, the government of Oklahoma may have been in such a bad state that good men wished to see it changed and felt that the Klan offered them an opportunity of correcting the wrongs in the state. But there is something more than good intentions to be considered in an affair of this kind. The Bill of Rights, consisting of amendments to the Constitution, confers certain inalienable rights upon American citizens and one of these is the right of trial by jury. This right has been taken from citizens of Oklahoma by a self-constituted body that acts as judge, jury and executioner. This is wrong, wrong beyond any doubt or question, and because it is so flagrantly wrong it is not likely to right anything. Nor is Governor Walton's martial law and despotic attitude likely to rid the state of lawlessness. When extremes meet the citizen who wants to go peacefully about his business is likely to get crushed between the embittered and battling parties. Oklahoma offers a lesson to other states, a lesson that can be taken to heart in these uncertain days, a lesson in what may happen when two groups, each bull-headed and stupid, seek to win their way despite the effect of their activities upon their state or nation. Such disturbances give an opportunity to revolutionists and revolutionary tendencies may be incited by the apostles of law and order quite as successfully as they can be taught by the devotees of anarchy.

WANTED: AN ASSOCIATION OF NATIONS

IN the first of a series of articles, contributed to the Chicago Herald and Examiner by H. G. Wells, this writer, whose place in the world of letters is so thoroughly established, says certain things about the League of Nations which will be of interest to those who have felt that it is not what it seems to be. Mr. Wells tells of his disappointment when the great assembly met to inaugurate the English League of Nations union. Those who were present caused the disappointment, and of the meeting he says: "The common folk of the earth might want a new organization of peace in the world, but these people of all people I realized would never give it to them."

In reviewing the work of the League of Nations this distinguished writer says: "We had thought that the League of Nations would abolish diplomacy. We found it had merely added another piece, and a very ineffective piece at that, to the already crowded diplomatic game upon the European board."

In these words Mr. Wells states what many have been thinking for a considerable time. People have been unable to find wherein the League of Nations has acted other than as an adjunct of the diplomatic interests of Europe. When important matters, such as the Ruhr and the Greco-Italian flareup demanded a verdict from just such an association of nations as the League of Nations was expected to be—an association of nations that would have a commanding voice in the affairs of Europe—the League of Nations was silent and the old-time diplomacy worked secretly.

In the light of what men who are able to appraise the League of Nations have to say about it, there is every reason to believe that the republican party has been vindicated and the attitude of the irreconcilables proved to have been wise by developments. In opposition to this it is said that America's participation in the league would have led to entirely different results. This is equal to affirming that America would herself have changed the whole attitude of the league and, if this is true, it is self-evident that America would have been required to bear the burden of the moves which she suggested.

The world needs an association of nations, in which neither the diplomacy of Europe nor of America will be the controlling voice, but an association in which and through which the voice of the peoples of the world will be expressed, and the people will do well to oppose legislation that would place America in such an association unless representatives of the people and not representatives of governments control it.

LLOYD GEORGE may be defeated as the leader of a political party but he is not yet defeated in his power to arouse public interest. New York city gave the Welshman such a welcome that, had his nerves been weak, he might have feared that enemies were about to assassinate him. It was noisy, but he didn't mind.

SENATOR ROBERT M. LA FOLLETTE doesn't like the means of travel used by the proletariat in Russia, and, as the cooties were biting, he became angered, if reports are true. Perhaps an American senator would find it hard to be a comfortable member of the proletariat.

AN ambassador was picked up for speeding by a policeman in West Virginia. He was released after putting up a bond of $5.60. Even ambassadors ought to be law-abiding and enforcement of law is justified even when ambassadors are guilty.

COLONEL HARVEY is to resign in January. How many times is this that the valiant colonel has resigned? What will he do with his breeches when he returns to the United States? He might pass them over to a female camper.

EVIDENTLY Irish sympathizers, that is the element that sympathizes with De Valera, doesn't like Lloyd George any too well. But this must be said: The Welshman gave the Irish more than anyone else ever gave them.

"The Wolf of Wall Street" has been trapped by a widow, and he isn't the first by any means.

Japanese Earthquake Pictures at the Lyceum

The first and only authentic motion pictures taken of the Japanese earthquake shortly after the catastrophe, will be shown at the Lyceum on Wednesday and Thursday, both matinee and night, in addition to their regular feature program.

These pictures were taken both from an airplane and the ground by a cameraman who happened to be in that country at the time, and shows scenes as they actually were.

They are in 2,000 feet or two full reels.

Several Children Act Without Rehearsal in "The Rustle of Silk"

Child actors are the bane of the directors' lives—in most cases.

Herbert Brenon, who directed Betty Compson and Conway Tearle in "The Rustle of Silk," had no difficulty with a small army of children who acted in this Paramount picture, which is now on view at the Lyceum Theatre.

"The Prisoner of Zenda" Another Rex Ingram Triumph

Once in a great while there comes a motion picture which can be hailed as almost perfect. Such a picture is the Rex Ingram production for Metro of the famous story, "The Prisoner of Zenda," which will be shown at the New Park on Wednesday and Thursday. This photoplay, which is based on Anthony Hope's novel, has been skillfully adapted by Mary O'Hara, gorgeously mounted by the Metro company and the excellent cast—which in the earlier days would have been labelled "all-star"—shows the inspired direction of that young wizard of the screen, Rex Ingram.

SENIOR PICNIC

Seventy Conveyed to Gilbert Lake
and Spent Friday Afternoon in
Joyous Time
(By E. H. H.)

The opening event of the Senior Class of '24 was a picnic at Gilbert lake last Friday evening. As soon as school was dismissed seventy seniors flocked into a long line of "Lizzies" parked in front of the old schoolhouse and migrated in a jovial procession to the Holmes' summer resort.

The remainder of the afternoon was spent in all sorts of recreation such as the place afforded. The lake was dotted with boats which were manned by ambitious senior boys, while on shore were seen preparations for the big "feed" which took place at six o'clock.

The seniors were honored by having as guests the faculty who helped consume a most delicious supper consisting of potato salad, salmon loaf, roasted wieners, pickles, hot buns, apples and coffee.

After such a repast the evening was spent in various sorts of games and sports until 8:30 o'clock when the picnicers adjourned to their homes to happily await the next big social function and hoping it will be as great a success as this one.

Those who read Arthur Somers Roche's great mystery story, "Find the Woman," in Cosmopolitan Magazine or later in book form will be interested to learn that it has been made in screen form by Cosmopolitan Productions. "Find the Woman," with Alma Rubens as the featured player, will be shown at the Lyceum Theatre Wednesday and Thursday.

There Is Ample Proof of the Unfailing Superiority of J. C. Penney Co. Quality!

You can buy at this Store positively assured of receiving the utmost satisfaction from the service your purchases will give. For 21 years, this has been the enjoyment realized by patrons of this Company.

If it were not so, would it today be the World's Largest Chain Department Store Organization?

If it were not so, would it have grown from one small Store in 1902, to a Nation-Wide Institution of 475 Department Stores in 1923?

If it were not so, would it have been possible for its annual business to increase in less than a quarter of a century, from $28,898 to over $50,000,000?

If it were not so, would it be reasonably sure of doing the stupendous business in 1923, of approximately $65,000,000?

If it were not so, would it today be the choice of more than a million families in 33 States?

If it were not so, would it have sold nearly 1,404,000 pairs of men's overalls in 1922, and 2,534,087 pairs of shoes, and 2,672,835 yards of percale, and 1,225,000 hair nets and other goods in equally large quantities?

If it were not so, would it enjoy the indisputable leadership in the mercantile field it does today?

No, indeed!

The Passionist Fathers of New York, Rev. Father Alexander, C. P., and Rev. Father Cletus, C. P., are conducting the mission. A mass is read at 5:30 o'clock each morning, followed by a short instruction. This mass is especially for those who work, and is over about 6:20 o'clock. The second mass is read at 8:20 o'clock, followed by a longer instruction.

In the evening at 7:30 o'clock the services open with the recital of the rosary, followed by instructions, and a regular mission sermon. The services are closed with benediction. All are welcome and urged to attend any of these services.

Next week there will be a three day mission which is especially designed for non-Catholics. At these services there will be explanations of the doctrines of the Catholic religion. All are welcome.

SENIOR PICNIC

Seventy Conveyed to Gilbert Lake
and Spent Friday Afternoon in
Joyous Time
(By E. H. H.)

The opening event of the Senior Class of '24 was a picnic at Gilbert lake last Friday evening. As soon as school was dismissed seventy seniors flocked into a long line of "Liz-zies" parked in front of the old schoolhouse and migrated in a jovial procession to the Holmes' summer resort.

The remainder of the afternoon was spent in all sorts of recreation such as the place afforded. The lake was dotted with boats which were manned by ambitious senior boys, while on shore were seen preparations for the big "feed" which took place at six o'clock.

The seniors were honored by having as guests the faculty who helped consume a most delicious supper consisting of potato salad, salmon loaf, roasted wieners, pickles, hot buns, apples and coffee.

After such a repast the evening was spent in various sorts of games and sports until 8:30 o'clock when the picnickers adjourned to their homes to happily await the next big social function and hoping it will be as great a success as this one.

Those who read Arthur Somers Roche's great mystery story, "Find the Woman," in Cosmopolitan Magazine or later in book form will be interested to learn that it has been made in screen form by Cosmopolitan Productions. "Find the Woman," with Alma Rubens as the featured player, will be shown at the Lyceum Theatre Wednesday and Thursday.

MRS. L. J. CALE PASSED AWAY

Died Monday Afternoon After Suffering Several Months From a Lingering Illness

FUNERAL TO BE WEDNESDAY

Braierd Appreciated the Splendid Life and Civic Spirit Displayed by This Pioneer Lady

Mrs. Catherine L. Cale, widow of L. J. Cale, passed away quietly and peacefully to her reward on Monday afternoon at 3:15 o'clock at a local hospital, after suffering several months of a lingering illness.

Catherine Louise Barrick was born in Ohio in May 1834. She was the youngest of a family of twelve. When seven years old in the year 1855 she came from Ohio to Minnesota by boat the trip requiring a number of weeks and being attended by many hardships. From the river port at which the boat arrived the family took the stage for their destination, Faribault, where they established a home.

In 1870 Catherine Louise Barrick was married to L. J. Cale and ten years later in 1880 Mr. and Mrs. Cale came to Braierd being among the earlier residents of this city. A writer in describing the conditions in Braierd three years after Mr. and Mrs. Cale and family arrived, says: "Braierd" was "a busy town of railroad mechanics and trainmen, built in the pine woods on the high bank of the Mississippi; and the people, with a good taste, rare in new western communities, have refrained from slaughtering the stately trees, and planned their pretty cottages among them, finding shelter from the keen Northern blasts in winter, and from the summer sun under the evergreen canopies."

Into these conditions Mrs. Cale came to live and the pioneer conditions of those earlier days marked by hardship and sometimes by poverty were often redeemed by her kindness and practical helpfulness.

The older residents of Braierd remember the store on what is now Front and Seventh streets in which Mr. Cale transacted his business for about 35 years. This was on the site now occupied by the Anna block and Mr. Cale utilized five buildings to accommodate his business. Mrs. Cale often took a part in the business but not in the regular manner. She was not selling but preparing packages which were placed out among the needy people in a pioneer city and country district. This was often done on a Sunday afternoon when the clerks were not in the store for Mrs. Cale's generosity was of an unostentatious character and she did not wish others to know of what she was doing. Near the end of her life, still interested in helping those who she thought needed help she made arrangements that her good works might be continued ever though she had passed on.

Mrs. Cale was a member of the Christian Science church and of the Eastern Star order.

Funeral services will be held at the home of her only daughter Mrs. E. C. Bane on Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock under the auspices of the Christian Science society of Braierd.

Mrs. Cale is survived by a brother and sister both older than herself who are unable to come to Braierd because of their physical condition.

Braierd has reason to appreciate the splendid life, the fine generosity and the civic spirit displayed by this pioneer lady whose life had more than a little to do with shaping the earlier character of this city and giving it something of the community spirit that has characterized its life.

COMMUNITY DAY IMPORTANT NOTICE

School Children Enter Coloring Contest of Office Supply Co. and New Bakery

"We believe in awakening the dormant artistic ability in the youth of today," said Carl W. Anderson, of the Braierd Office Supply Co., who, with the cooperation of the Elektrik-Maid Bakery is putting on a school children's coloring contest.

All school children in the city are eligible to compete for the prizes that are to be given. All that is necessary is to color the picture of the young lady appearing in the bakery advertisement which is running in the Dispatch.

The possibilities are unlimited, stated Mr. Anderson, who has samples of coloring done in other cities. This work is truly artistic, and should offer plenty of inspiration and suggestions to the contestants.

The rules governing the contestants are very simple. At least three colors must be used, and the work is to be done with Dixon crayons. All contestants must submit their pictures to the Elektrik-Maid bakery not later than Saturday evening, October 13th, at 9 o'clock.

It is Mr. Anderson's plan to carry on similar contests throughout the fall and winter, with other business

GIANTS FAVORITES FOR SERIES, BUT—

By HENRY L. FARRELL
United Press Sports Editor

New York, Oct. 9.—Confidence being a large and prominent part of any battle, the New York Giants should have the advantage in mental fettle over the Yankees when they go into their third battle of successive years for the baseball championship.

After outfighting the Yankees in 1921 and routing them in 1922, it is but natural that the National League champions should go into the 1923 fight feeling that they can win. It follows also that the Yankees could not help but have a slight doubt about their chances after they had lost two years running to a team that was unanimously regarded as being inferior to the American League pennant winners.

It is the spirit of confidence, which should sway the Giants, and the established ability of McGraw's team to do its very best when the situation is worst that makes the National Leaguers the favorite in the betting.

Yankee supporters, if there is such a thing as partisan feeling in New York, believe that the chances of the team rest entirely upon the robust form of Babe Ruth.

It has become an accepted axiom that "as Ruth goes, so go the Yanks," and on this theory, which was proved beyond all doubt, during the last season, if the swat king shatters the spell that John McGraw has cast over him for two years, the Yanks ought to win.

Star pitching, as it is represented in the Yankee staff, will impose plenty of trouble upon the Giant batters, but it will be nothing compared to the handicap McGraw's team will have to carry if Ruth goes on a batting rampage.

It is impossible to look in the glass and see a movie of what the Babe is going to make of the chance to redeem himself, but it is almost a safe bet that the battering-ram of the Yankees will not be the chief goat of the series, even if he is not the champion hero.

Ruth's hitting in the closing days of the season will be a most important factor in getting him ready for the series. It will be remembered that Ruth came back home with the Yankees after their last western trip leading the league in batting and immediately fell into a slump. He got the idea that he couldn't hit in the new Yankee Stadium, and ideas of that kind impose a fatal mental hazard on a ball player. Ruth, however, apparently worked himself out of that mental bunker and started hitting.

Ruth has always maintained that he liked the Polo Grounds better than any park on the circuit, when the American League was sharing the home of the Giants and part of the series will be played there.

He ought to hit at least normally under conditions that are as near to ideal as possible and his normal gait this season has been around 400. Giant pitchers in 1921 and 1922 had to fool only a Babe who was trying to murder the ball and who wasn't in shape to connect with a blimp. But the Babe of 1923 is a great batter as well as the king slugger and he is in shape.

With the Giants forced to play part of the series on a strange field, while the Yankees are at home in both grounds, the National League champions will also face another handicap. It may amount to nothing and again it may turn out to be a most important factor.

The Yankee stadium is hard to play in. Irish Meusel and "Pep" Young, the Giant left and rightfielders, will have almost twice the territory to cover that they protect in the Polo Grounds and strange lighting conditions may bother the batters. American League players claim the Yankee home is the hardest field to play in the big leagues and it is only natural that the Giants might have some difficulty in adjusting themselves.

Just before the series opened last fall, the New York correspondent of a Japanese paper cabled the following expert prognostication on the series to his paper:

"All depends on how the Yankee batters bat and Giant pitchers pitch." The same abstract dope might be applied this year, although it might be amended to predict that the series will depend upon how the Yankee batters bat and how the Yankee pitchers pitch.

Disregarding the proof placed at hand in 1921 and 1922 that great pitching is not an insurmountable obstacle for a good ball club to overcome, it still remains difficult to reason that the Giants can get by Sam Jones, Herb Pennock, Waite Hoyt, Joe Bush and Bob Shawkey just because they did last year and the year previous.

With a ball club that is more mentally alert, a team that is actuated by better spirit and a manager who has been able to establish harmony where discord prevailed before, it is not logical that the Yankees should be out-thought and out-played again just because they were last fall and the fall before.

With Babe Ruth playing the greatest game of his life on the offense and the defense and with the whole Yankee team set to vindicate themselves, just as the Babe wants to redeem himself, it is not reasonable to take evidence from the past to draw the conclusion that once and twice wrong, the Yanks always will be wrong.

Because the Yanks have nothing better than their best which failed in two previous fights against the Giants it is not safe to depend upon the moral reformation of the team and psychology to bet that the series will not result just as it did in the two previous cases.

On form and dope, the Giants ought to win the championship again. The experts, who strung along with the Yanks for two years, have all swung over to the champions and are picking the Giants.

The Giants, it is true, have many reasons and causes why they should win, but we do not believe they will.

NEW FACES IN SERIES THIS FALL

By Henry L. Farrell
(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, Oct. 9.—Only a few debutantes will make their first bow in world's series society when the Giants and the Yankees line up for the 1923 classic.

Both Managers McGraw and Huggins probably will decide to start practically the same teams that played in the series last fall and most of the players will be veterans of at least two previous inter-league combats.

The Giants have three star young players and at least two of them are almost sure to be seen in one or more of the games.

Jimmy O'Connell, the youngster for whom the Giants paid the San Francisco Pacific Coast League club the record sum of $75,000, will no doubt get a chance in some of the games in center field. Manager McGraw may not start him, as he is a nervous youngster, and Casey Stengel, the veteran warrior, might get the assignment in the early games.

Jack Bentley, the $65,000 southpaw pitcher who came from the Baltimore International League club, probably will be picked to pitch one of the games, and he is sure to get some work as a pinch hitter, as he is one of the most dangerous batters in the National League. When right he is also a very good pitcher.

Chance for Jackson

Travis Jackson, the young shortstop who came to the Giants from the Little Rock club of the Southern Association, will be put to work if Heinie Groh, the veteran third baseman, should not be able to hold up during the series.

Jackson was called upon to fill the place of Dave Bancroft, the Giant captain, who was out for six weeks during the mid-season, and he gave promise of developing into a great player. He is a game kid, a good fielder and a fine hitter, and with more experience he might have been given a place as a regular.

Unless the Yanks should have a walkaway in the series, it is doubtful that any new players will be able to break into the lineup. Huggins, with the exception of Haines and Hendricks in the outfield, and Benny Bengough, a third string catcher, has no new material on the team.

Herb Pennock, former Red Sox southpaw, no doubt will be started in one game. He had a very good season and it is almost sure that he will get a chance to pitch one of the games.

Huggins' Reserves

For infield reserves Huggins has Mike McNally, a veteran, and Ernie Johnston, who was added to the roster in mid-season when the White Sox asked waivers on him.

Elmer Smith, hero of the 1920 world's series when he was playing with the Cleveland Indians, will get the first call for outfield duty in an emergency.

The Yanks have two young pitchers, Pipgrass and Roettger, who may be called upon as part-time relievers if the Giants should get mean with any of the star Yankee pitchers.

"Mule" Watson, who came to the Giants from Boston in a mid-season deal, may also get a chance to do some pitching. McGraw is sore on him for breaking training rules, however, and he may not be used unless it is absolutely necessary.
